WIN A YEAR OF STUDY IN AUSTRALIA

Australian Trade Commission's "Win your Future Unlimited" on-line competition offers an opportunity to win a year of study in Australia

The Australian Trade Commission is organising a global online competition titled "Win your Future Unlimited". The competition invites prospective international students to describe their future aspirations through a digital postcard including the role of an Australian education in securing their future

The competition runs from 1 October until 18 November 2013. The competition is available at <http://www.futureunlimited.com.au>.

The competition is open to international audiences aged at least 18 years on 5 December 2013, and no more than 30 years by 5 December 2014. The participants are expected to use a mixture of branded tools and own content to create a digital postcard.

Prizes

Participants can submit entries every week through the timeline of the competition.

Weekly finalists' prize

Seven finalists will win a study tour to Australia. The tour will run from 5 to 17 December 2013 and will include travel to Adelaide, Brisbane, Gold Coast, Hobart, Melbourne, Perth and Sydney; where finalists will meet with representatives from the 22 supporting institutions. The prize also includes:

- Return economy flights to Australia from the finalists' home countries
